Dear Ms Myers,

Yes, you have permission to deposit the article, provided that its citation details are given. In addition, a link to the CALICO Journal would be appreciated.

Best wishes

Dear Editors:

I am working with Dr. Dong-shin Shin of The College at Brockport, State University of New York to deposit electronic versions of her papers in The College at Brockport's institutional repository, Digital Commons @Brockport, for educational and research purposes.

I am writing to request permission to deposit an electronic version of:

Gebhard, M., Shin, D.S., & Seger, W. (2011). Blogging and emergent L2 literacy development in urban elementary school: A functional perspective. CALCIO Journal, 28(2), 278-307.

This request is for non-exclusive, non-commercial, one-time, single-use permission for educational and research only. Copyright notice, citation of original publication data, DOI number, and a hotlink to your site (if desired) will be given.

Our repository is the institutional archive, maintained at the Drake Memorial Library, for research and scholarship emanating from The College at Brockport. A single electronic version will be archived and become available for viewing by visitors to the Library's Digital Commons site. For more information about the repository or its policies, please contact me at the email or phone below.

May we have permission to deposit an electronic version of these articles?
Thank you for your assistance.
